Tour of Aran In the center of the island, more than 300 years ago, a city known as Hungerford was founded, where the royal estate was located. It is believed that the best preserved part of the buildings belongs to the times of Richard the Lionheart. In 1495, William II the Conqueror built St. Wyatts Abbey at Aran Castle. The museum has a collection of medieval art, as well as a fine collection of paintings, arts and crafts, heirlooms and toys. At present, the castle is still the property of the state, the reconstruction of the castle is being carried out here, which promises to become a real work of art. Interest in Aran Castle on the Welsh Peninsula is growing, and this is not surprising, because it is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is included in the list of England's 1000 Wonders. Aran is also a wonderful holiday in England, sightseeing, a boat trip on Loch Cok and much more that will make your holiday in Wales and the UK unforgettable. Burg Newburgh - Chambord Castle. A tour of Chambord Castle, located in the heart of the city, can be made at any time convenient for you. In 1247, the sons of Philip IV, King of France, began the construction of the castle, which was soon completed by them. It was intended not only for the defense of the city, but also as a residence for the royal family. It was the largest and most beautiful castle in France. According to the general plan and the architect's plan, the construction of the castle was started in 1248, but only 200 years from the day the castle was founded were celebrated. The unique charm of this place gives the autumn riot of colors. This is largely due to the nearby park. If you want to dedicate a day of your trip to tour this park, then it will be a wonderful place
